PROMINENT ESTATE COLLECTIONS OF TRIBAL, CHINESE, STAINED GLASS, FINE AND DECORATIVE ARTS

Continuation of the Estate of Senator Jack Faxon and Private & Estate Collections at DuMouchelles January 28 and 29 Auctions

DETROIT (January 10, 2021) – DuMouchelles Thursday and Friday, January 28 and 29 auctions feature the continuation of the collection of Michigan Senator Jack Faxon, an avid art collector and a champion for the arts that led to him create the Michigan Council for the Arts. Senator Faxon’s extensive collection of stained glass leaded windows, over 250 pieces of African tribal art, a wide variety of Chinese art, in addition to paintings, sculptures and lithographs by iconic artists, are the focus of his collection at auction. Take a virtual tour of Senator Faxon’s home and see his stunning collection displayed at www.DuMoArt.com.

The auctions also feature the estate of Robert C. Metcalf, a distinguished architect who joined the faculty of the University of Michigan College of Architecture and Urban Planning in 1955, served as Chairman from 1968-1974, Dean from 1974 to 1986, and retired as professor emeritus in 1991. Mr. Metcalf’s collection will be sold to benefit the University of Michigan Museum of Art. The estate of Perry Swartz, of Farmington Hills, MI, the Estate of a Pleasant Ridge, MI sporting art collector, prominent Grosse Pointe Farms, MI, Bloomfield Hills, MI and Palm Beach, FL estates, in addition to other prominent collectors and estates are also featured.
